WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 29, 1900. PORTO RICANS HATE AMERI-

CANS. The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post says that, distressed by poverty, and with a majority of the natives inimical to American rule, the island of Porto Rico presents a spectacle not very cheering, according to James A. Sample, chief of the issue division of the Treasury, who returned Monday from Porto Rico, where he went to adjust the currency. The rise in the price of rice due to the tariff imposed by the United States contributes to this sentiment, since rice is one of the great leading staples of food, Speaking of the general situation, Chief

"Army officers generally in Porto Rico believe that the giving of a large sum of money by Congress was a mistake. When Porto Rico came into our possession the conditions were oppressive and the hurricane created great havoc. American rule is so different from anything they have been accus-tomed to that they cannot adjust them-selves readily. I traveled from San Juan to Porto Rico, through Arcedonad Accused the entire and Aguadilla, and covered the entire island. I found the majority of the natives opposed to the United States, whereas I had been led to believe that they welcomed Americans with open

Mr. Sample reports that of the original sum of $6,000,000 in Porto Rican silver, supposed to have been in circulation on the island, all but about lation on the island, all but about $700,000 has been exchanged, and arrangements have been perfected by which facilities for the exchange will continue for an indefinite period.

Troublesome to the Army.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa. is one of these. He use- Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such a quick relief. It is for sale by all druggists.

Beauty Is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all inpurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.
